Congratulations to the 78 people involved in the play, “The Lady, The Children, and The Message!” It was amazing! To have a performance of this quality was truly impressive! I heard so many positive comments from people who were able to see the play. If you would like a DVD or a digital copy of the performance, please contact Adam Mast @ 660-890-3841. The cost is $20.

Last weekend, Eli Gratton and his mom, Bobbi; along with Mrs. Garcia (his ELA teacher) attended a celebratory banquet for the Patriots of the American Revolution Essay Contest in St. Louis. Eli was a STATE WINNER for 6th grade with his essay. They chose one winner per grade level statewide. What a nice honor!!

We have more winners! A poster contest was sponsored by Livingston County Soil and Water. The two district winners were Emmie Brobst and Grady Allen. They will move on to the State competition. Good luck to them! Winners for their respective grade levels at our school were:
First place: Grady Allen, Blaise Garrison, Tinley Lauhoff, Kimber Woodworth, Scarlet Lindley and Emerson Brobst.
Second place: Wyatt Dysart, Hattie Alford, Emma Rupp, Libby Bonderer, Jameson Marshall, and Vivian Vandemore.
Third place: Kobe Douglas, London Douglas, Riggan Isaacs, Brody Finley, and Cooper Jeschke.

Mrs. Alford's Art students were highlighted at the Cultural Corner's Art Fair last week. They did a great job using different mediums to make creative products! Kudos to Mrs. Alford!

Many blessings to you!
 Pam Brobst, Principal
