Bishop Hogan Memorial School

A Golden Opportunity

From the Principal's desk...

Our last 2 home ballgames for the Middle School basketball teams will be played on Monday, Nov. 10 and Tuesday, Nov. 11. We play Winston on Monday and that is our Eighth Grade Recognition Night, for 8th grade basketball players. They are Ethan Anderson, son of Chris and Stephanie Anderson, Thatcher Rardon, son of Blake and Amber Rardon, and Sam and Charlotte Brobst, son and daughter of Ryan and Stephanie Brobst. We play Pleasant View on Tuesday, at which our 8th graders will be hosting their Blue and Gold Night, which is a fundraiser for March for Life. We will have some fun contests for the students to participate in at halftime and between the games.

Congratulations to our boys' and girls' basketball teams for winning their first game in the Tri-County Tournament. They played well against Pattonsburg. The next games will be Thursday night, Nov. 6, for the second round of Tourney play. Good luck, Eagles!

On Monday, November 10 at 2:50, Father Koster will lead a dedication ceremony for the St. Leo Building. The beautiful stained glass with the image of St. Leo I, also known as 'St. Leo the Great', was installed on Friday, October 31, above the main entrance of the building.

May God bless you abundantly,
Pam Brobst, Principal
