Thirty-two of us will be headed to Washington, D.C. on Wednesday of this week. We will visit some of the capital's monuments and historical sites on Thursday and participate in the March for Life on Friday, January 21. We will return home on Saturday, January 22. The theme for this year's March is "Equality Begins in the Womb."

The rally before the March will be kicked off at the National Mall with a concert by Matthew West, GMA Dove Award-winning and Grammy Award nominated artist and songwriter. Some of the featured guest speakers that follow will be Father Mike Schmitz, host of "Bible in a Year" podcast; Lisa Robertson from Duck Dynasty; and Kirk Cameron, actor and producer. There are some members of the House of Representatives speaking also. After the rally, we will march up Constitution Avenue to the Supreme Court.

We will be attending the largest annual human rights march in the world. We are not only standing up for those who cannot speak out for themselves, but we are gathering to celebrate each and every life created by God. We are standing for a world where every life is valued and protected. We ask that you keep us in your prayers for a safe journey.

May God bless you!
 Pam Brobst, Principal
