From the Principal's desk...

Students enjoyed a day off on Monday, September 21, while our teachers participated in professional development. Kindergarten through 4th grade teachers traveled to St. Patrick Elementary School in Kansas City, while our Middle School teachers attended the ElevateEd Conference in Trenton. More than 20 schools came together for a day of learning and collaboration, with sessions sponsored by the Northwest Regional Professional Development Center and the Trenton School District. We are grateful for these opportunities for our teachers to grow and bring new ideas and strategies back to our classrooms!

Congratulations to our two recent PTO grant recipients, Courtnie Cranmer and Kim Walter! Courtnie, our third-grade teacher, received a grant for new student reading books and bookshelves for her classroom. Kim Walter, our preschool teacher, received a grant for art supplies for her students. A big thank-you to our PTO members for continuing to support our teachers and students by providing these additional resources. Your generosity makes a difference in our classrooms!

Mrs. Judy Koster has graciously agreed to be our substitute music teacher until we hire someone. She is coming from KC, so will have music on Tuesday and Wednesday. Therefore, PE will be Monday, Thursday, and half day on Friday (K-4). Band will be Monday and Thursday afternoon. We appreciate the teachers of these specials being flexible on their days to help out.

The students had a great time at their I-Ready incentive bowling party.

The students did a great job on their community service. Some of the jobs included: picking up trash, making cards for nursing home residents, and cleaning up flower beds and landscaping at the YMCA.
